ARTILLERYMAN ON WARPATH IN PHOEBUS

Harry Johnson Smashes in Glass Door For J. B. Miller and Then Tries to Break Up the Jail.

Harry Johnson, a Fort Monroe artilleryman , went on the warpath in Phoebus late Friday night and made things pretty lively for a while. He first smashed in a large glass door for Mr. J. B. Miller and when taken to the lock-up proceeded to break a window glass and iron grate in the cell. He was fined $20 for breaking Miller's window and $10 for his rowdy work in the jail by Mayor L. P. Furness yesterday morning, and being mess yesterday morning, and being unable to pay the fines and costs came up to Hampton jaff for a stay of ninety days.
